... This morning, when so many people appeared on the streets of the city that it seemed that its entire population rushed to the holiday, on the square in front of the courthouse and city hall, where a platform had already been installed, everyone was seized by how some inexplicable nervous excitement. Separate groups of people, having arrived in the city and not knowing where and how the inhabitants could meet them, walked along the roads among the deserted fields, and now it was already difficult to determine who was the first in this crowd and who was the last.
