What's new:

Illustration, painting, animation and coloring are fascinating for me, but it can be hard to drag yourself into doing them on a daily basis. At the same time, it can be pleasant to get inspired for this hobby by watching a lot of funny videos online. Thus, I came up with the idea of creating a tool where you could easily create a character from just one expression on a face. If you are interested to see the final results, try this demo. Play with the different colors by moving the sliders and control the transparency of the face. 1. From a face you want to draw, import it into the program. You can do that by clicking Import > Import From File... 2. After you imported the image, you can use the sliders to adjust the colors: 3. You can now convert the colors to greyscale. This will help you when you draw, as you won't see any color anymore. 4. You can now choose a frame size for the facial lines and start drawing. The default values are 25 and 40cm. You can change them as you please: 5. You can move the head onto a blank background to adjust the proportions. While you're doing that you can zoom in until you see how accurate the results will be: 6. If you have any feedback you can just type it in the box on the right: 7. After that click Save all Changes and you're done! Now you can import the psd into your favourite paint programm or just print it out. Free The Falconers: Moonlight [32|64bit]

Super Recoilfight is a non-linear survival shooter based on the skill of swift retaliation. Up to four players can duke it out across the wasteland on a single keyboard. Your aim is simple: move and shoot, and make it count. HOW TO PLAY: Super Recoilfight is a one-button projectile brawler-shooter optimized for 4 player gameplay on a single keyboard. You move and aim using the recoil of your shots, so time them right to win against your friends, AI or both. Single Button Shooter Start up Super Recoilfight, and start shooting, which is pretty much all there is to it. As you play, you and your opponent will react to each other's shots, but you are always the one who moves. Fighting of the First Round Shoot, and then move. You need to press the fire button once (to shoot) and release it (to move) once per shot, but if you ever spend more than half a shot, then moving with the recoil will be worth it. Hard to Master You need to know how to read and respond to your opponent's shots. This may sound simple, but practice may be needed to figure it out. Getting the hang of it will take some time. Have Fun To win you need to shoot out your opponent, so you will have to keep a keen eye on your opponents constantly. Your opponents will try to land their shots, too, so keep moving and keep shooting. Your goal is not to die, your goal is to win. Key Features: Team Friendly: You can play up to 4 people, but only two of the players can be human players. This is done to offset the development costs of the game. It is still playable with up to 2 PC and 2 AI players without the DLC. No Lagging: The whole game is fully compatible with the Windows 10 Taskbar and Alt-Tab, allowing you to keep on playing as you switch between games. Do not force the game to foreground, do not start a new game while playing, and you should have no issues. No Heat: Super Recoilfight does not generate any heat, so you can keep your PC cool, even at the highest settings. NOTICE: You can only have two human players when you do not own the supporter pack, namely P1 and P2. To allow P3 and P4 to be PC, you need the supporter pack.
