Besides Wikipedia, you can search the Wiktionary (online dictionary), Wikiquote, Wikibooks, Wikisource and Wikinews, all in multiple languages. Right-clicking on the interface opens a menu that you can use to hide the widget or access the 'Preferences' section. Here, users can adjust the size of the widget, modify its transparency and set the program to automatically clear the input word when pressing 'Enter'. Optionally, the widget can be set to stay on top of or below
