I am trying to get a certain part of the string and save it to a file. The part I am trying to extract is: /Op.1-Deutsche Schule der Musik /Bauchschmerzen und Erschlaffen PDF-Datei:Wuoroni115.pdf I am trying to get the number 1-Deutsche Schule der Musik and save it to a file. I have tried with string position with ""("./.\1) string.Split("/Deutsche Schule der Musik")[1] string.Substring("/Deutsche Schule der Musik","1 ") and string.Replace("/Deutsche Schule der Musik" "1 ") EDIT The program is only getting part of the string. I am getting for example 1-Deutsche Schule der Musik only. This is what i have tried: string name = "C:\\projects\\duaunm\\duaunmsc.rar"; FileStream fileStream = File.OpenRead(name); StreamReader reader = new StreamReader(fileStream, Encoding.UTF8); string fileName = "/Mittag/Wuoroni225.pdf"; string[] array = Directory.GetFiles(name); foreach (string file in array) { File.Delete(file); } using (TextWriter outputWriter = new StreamWriter(@"C:\\projects\\duaunm\\duaunmsc.pdf", true)) { string line = reader.ReadLine(); while (line!= null) { if (line.Contains("/Deutsche Schule der Musik") && line!= null)

This also means that you can change the order in which the included documents are displayed in the presentation by dragging and/or deleting pages.. You may want to save your presentation for later use. For more information about the save function, see Save as a PDF (Office 2007) on page. Not only in humanistic fields, but also in natural sciences, the woman's participation in work is very low. This is largely due to the traditional fact that there has been no special education for women, which is needed. Perhaps I can suggest some things that we can do. First of all, the main point is to widen the so-called concept of "qualified women". Those women who have education and qualifications must be accepted as such, and instead of the current classical education and qualification tasks, the so-called "specific" tasks for women must be carried out. We only need to find something for them to do, we do not have to do for them. The more women participate in office work, the more they learn new things, the more they establish contacts and do not be bothered by extra things. And also, there is something else. We should formulate special education programmes for women. This will also be a good stimulus for women to take up more work. If education is the only thing that creates interest in a man, he will stay at home with his wife. This is why, we must also have special education programmes for women.
